

ANARCHISTISCHE WOCHEN BERLIN

The background of the poster features a large, stylized orange circle containing a grey 'A' symbol, representing anarchism. In the center, a black silhouette of a human skull is shown with a small plant sprouting from its forehead. The plant has three leaves and a thin stem. The skull is rendered in a high-contrast, graphic style. At the bottom of the poster, there are silhouettes of several people with their arms raised in the air, suggesting a crowd or a protest.
